Readings for Sunday 24th July on the theme of prayer

Luke 11:5-13

<sup>5</sup> And Jesus said to his disciples, "Suppose one of you should go to a friend's house at midnight and say, 'Friend, let me borrow three loaves of bread.' <sup>6</sup> A friend of mine who is on a trip has just come to my house, and I don't have any food for him!' <sup>7</sup> And suppose your friend should answer from inside, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' <sup>8</sup> Well, what then? I tell you that even if he will not get up and give you the bread because you are his friend, yet he will get up and give you everything you need because you are not ashamed to keep on asking. <sup>9</sup> And so I say to you: Ask, and you will receive; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For those who ask will receive, and those who seek will find, and the door will be opened to anyone who knocks. <sup>11</sup> Would any of you who are fathers give your son a snake when he asks for fish? <sup>12</sup> Or would you give him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? <sup>13</sup> As bad as you are, you know how to give good things to your children. How much more, then, will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Luke 18:1-8

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to teach them that they should always pray and never become discouraged. <sup>2</sup> "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected people. <sup>3</sup> And there was a widow in that same town who kept coming to him and pleading for her rights, saying, 'Help me against my opponent!' <sup>4</sup> For a long time the judge refused to act, but at last he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or respect people, <sup>5</sup> yet because of all the trouble this widow is giving me, I will see to it that she gets her rights. If I don't, she will keep on coming and finally wear me out!'"

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord continued, "Listen to what that corrupt judge said. <sup>7</sup> Now, will God not judge in favour of his own people who cry to him day and night for help? Will he be slow to help them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, he will judge in their favour and do it quickly. But will the Son of Man find faith on earth when he comes?"
